

British Values

At Little Bloxwich we promote British Values. These are some of the ways.

Democracy:

School Council – selected from nominations, speeches and votes.

School Councillors visit to the Town's Mayor, working with the Mayor on an agreed initiative, tackling the litter problem around the town centre.

Visit to the Polling Station for the 2015 General Election.

Debates and votes

Pupil questionnaires – giving children the opportunity to express opinion and listened to.

The rule of law;

Children contributing to class rules.

Ensuring the school rules are known and understood, and expectations are clear and fair.

Being able to distinguish between right and wrong.

Individual liberty;

Implementing a strong anti-bullying culture.

Encouraging children to take responsibility for their behaviour.

Supporting children to develop their self-esteems and self-confidence.

Mutual respect and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs.

Visits to places of worship.

Develop links with faith and ethnic communities – Islamic Experience visit.

Celebrate festivals and special occasions.

Promote respect for individual differences.
