

Week beginning 23.03.20

Year 5 Writing Project

Task 1: Identify the features of a newspaper report. (See Little Red Riding Hood newspaper report).

- What is the purpose of the writing?
- How is the writing organised?
- Can you find the 5Ws?
- Can you find examples of direct speech and reported speech?
- How does the article end?

Task 2: To explain what my favourite fairy tale is.

My Favourite Fairy Tale

Draw in the box above a picture from your favourite fairy tale.

- What is your favourite fairy tale?
- What is it about?
- Why did you choose this one?
- Who is your favourite character and why?
- If you could change one thing about the tale, what would that be and why?

Task 3: To identify direct speech and reported speech.

Can you write some sentences with direct speech that you will find in your favourite fairy tale and change into reported speech.

Example of direct speech:

"Then I'll huff and I'll puff and I will blow your house down!" shouted the wolf.

Changed into reported speech:

The wolf shouted that he was going to blow the first house down by huffing and puffing.

Task 4: To plan a newspaper report.

Plan a newspaper report about your favourite fairy tale. Use the model text (task 1) to help you.

Headline
Paragraph	What I need to include:
Introduction
First Paragraph (More detail about what happened)
Second Paragraph (Wider information)
Eye Witness (direct speech/reported speech)
Conclusion (Where the investigation will go next, looking to the future, summarise)

Task 5: To write a newspaper report.

Write a newspaper report about your favourite Fairy tale.
