

Year 2 Writing Project

Week beginning 18th May

On the home learning tab this week, I have included some word searches with common exception words. Year 2's are expected to be able to spell most of these words. Have fun!

If you want to listen to me reading the story, this is the link.

Task 1: (Monday) I can describe a setting.

Look at this picture of the kitchen sink. What creatures do you think will be under there? Think of your own and create a noun phrase to describe them.

WAGOLL: A slimy bacon eel. A slippery spaghetti fish.

Task 2: (Tuesday)

I can use exciting verbs in a sentence.

Listen to the story again and make notes of the verbs used.

Remember a verb is something that is done.

Traction man is zoomed past the sink.

In class, we learnt that an adverb describes how you do it.

Traction man zoomed quickly past the sink.

Complete the chart below and draw a picture to show me what traction man is doing.

Traction man _____ _____ _____
Traction man _____ _____ _____
_____ _____ _____
_____ _____ _____
_____ _____ _____

Task 3: (Wednesday) I know the features of a diary.

Read the diary piece. What features do you notice? What tense is it in? How have they started the sentences? Have they included an exclamation mark or a question?

Tuesday October 1st

Well that was one of the best days ever! Today I went to an amazing waterpark on a school trip and we stayed in the swimming pools for almost the entire day! I was really excited about the trip yesterday and when we arrived I wasn't disappointed – the park was massive with slides and flumes everywhere you looked. The best bit was a kind of structure that you could climb up and walk around – there were buckets and water guns you could use to try and soak people who were underneath you.

After we had got changed and when we first got in to the pool, my friend and I headed straight for the biggest flume ride called the 'Master Blaster'. I was a little nervous about going on it because I hadn't been on anything like that before but I felt glad to be on the same rubber ring as my friend. The ride was amazingly fast and at one point, there was no light so that as you went round and round, you felt like you were travelling to the centre of the Earth. We loved it so much we kept going back to the top until we had ridden on it five times in a row.

Next we wanted to try another flume ride – one that you had to ride on your own by sitting in a yellow ring. By the time we did this I was feeling confident about the flumes but as I sat at the top I didn't feel properly balanced in the ring. Before I knew it I was shooting down the slide and slipping off the ring at the same time. Then, as the slide turned a sharp corner, the ring slipped out from under me and I bashed my head on the side of the tube! I managed to grab the ring but I couldn't get on it again and after a couple of dodgy corners I was just glad to see the daylight of the plunge pool at the bottom. The lifeguard had seen the incident on his monitor so he got me some ice for my head and I sat there for a while watching the others come down. It put me off going on the flumes for a while, but after about 5 minutes I was ready to go again!

I can't wait to go back, but I must remember two key things that happen if you DO stay in a swimming pool all day – 1. Your hands will be wrinkled like a very old person's 2. You will be very tired. I am!
